

ORACLE University's 2008 Partner of the Year

The TransAmerica Training Management Advantage

TransAmerica Training Management is the 2008 Oracle University Partner of the Year. We own and manage Oracle Authorized Education Centers (OAEC) throughout North America and the Caribbean. We offer interactive eLearning, public classes, private classes and custom content development. We provide world class training solutions for your entire Oracle related implementation, project team and end-user populations.

Oracle Learning Credit Discounts

Did you know that TransAmerica Training Management is also an Oracle University Authorized Reseller? Oracle Learning Credits can be purchased from TransAmerica Training Management in volume discounts and are redeemable at any TransAmerica Training Facility or Oracle Training Center.

User Adoption Services

TransAmerica Training Management also provides custom end-user training solutions for individuals as well as small, large, and multi-geographic groups from both the public and private sectors. We utilize the Oracle UPK, and other industry tools.
