

ORACLE University's 2008 Partner of the Year

Implementation/Upgrade Training:

TransAmerica Training Management is an Oracle Education partner that owns and manages Oracle Authorized Education Centers (OAEC) throughout North America and the Caribbean. We offer interactive eLearning, public classes, private classes and custom content development.

Oracle Learning Credit Discounts

We are also an Oracle University Authorized Reseller. Oracle Learning Credits can be purchased in volume discounts and are redeemable at any TAM Training or Oracle training center.

User Adoption Services

TransAmerica Training Management provides custom end-user training solutions for individuals as well as small, large, and multi-geographic groups from both the public and private sectors. We utilize the Oracle UPK, Assima and other industry standard tools.
